Shea Graham Construction Inc., of Spokane, has started work on a project to build a Walgreen Co. pharmacy outlet in Wenatchee, Wash.

Jeremy Carroll, a project manager for Shea Graham, says the Spokane company began demolition work earlier this month on an old freight warehouse along Miller Street in north Wenatchee where it's scheduled to start construction of the 15,000-square-foot drug store next month. It expects to complete the building in May, and the new Walgreen store likely will open in June, he says.
